[REDACTED] provided the following information:

[REDACTED] is a federal corrections officer reporting misconduct. He works in MCC NY, (Metropolitan Correctional Center) 150 Park Row, NY, NY 10007. Federal Bureau of Prisons. [REDACTED] has never seen this amount of bags of shredded documents coming out to be put in the dumpster at the rear gate of the MCC. Last week Epstein hung himself, and there is an ongoing investigation. There was a BOP After-Actions team that came, and they are supposed to review what happened. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] There was an inmate named [REDACTED], he is a [REDACTED] worker [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Another inmate who works back there who helped [REDACTED] is [REDACTED], from the same unit. He helped [REDACTED] throw the bags of shredded documents into the dumpster. [REDACTED] was bringing back bags of shredded papers, around 4 or 5 bags, and caller brought them into the gate to throw into the dumpster. [REDACTED] told caller that the after-action team is shredding huge amounts of paperwork.

Caller found it suspicious that an after-action team charged with investigating would be shredding huge amounts of paperwork with all of the officials from AIG, FBI and BO in the building in the middle of an investigation. Those giving instructions to [REDACTED] said, "Make sure you get that box too." The next day, (today, Friday Aug 16) same inmate, [REDACTED] brought another bag of shredded materials, and [REDACTED] said they had him helping to shred the material. Today, he reported that he has to do it because he doesn't want to get in trouble if he refuses. He said they were very nice to him, but they wouldn't let him leave the area. The dumpster containing all of these shredded documents gets picked up Monday. [REDACTED] reports that if anyone cares about what was shredded, it needs picked up before Monday by 8am. [REDACTED] stated that one of the staff employees said, "this isn't the first time I've had to do things like this." Thursday was the first report of shredding by [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] reiterated that inmate [REDACTED] witnessed the shredding, not [REDACTED].
