You don't know us. I'm sure. You have beautiful children, bitch, fuck your children. Which one should I kill first? You know no one knows who we are. I want to kill them in such a way that no one can tell how they died. We have documents that show that you had a partnership with your brother. I want to do something to see the death of your loved ones.
We will kill one of your children in 72 hours. Stupid

Hey bitch, don't you want to answer? If you don't answer, I'll suffocate you like your brother.

You don't know our boss's name, I'm sure. If you know him, tell us, he wants to meet you. Just because you don't answer doesn't mean you don't know your brother's killers. it's true?
You know that if you tell the police something, we will kill your children.

Hey Puggie

My boss is a very kind person, he loved your brother. Your brother's mistake was that he wanted to tell the court everything. The boss wants to meet you. He just wants to see if you know him or not. What's the boss's name?

Hey Puggie,

You have two choices, Or tell the court you partnered with your brother, Or we kill your family like your brother
