How to use these tables:

You will need at least 1 six-sided die (1d6) and 1 eight-sided die (1d8). One may use just six-sided dice, but you will have a little less variety when generating. Roll according to the flow of each sentence. A full tweet is made up of the main sentence, the explanation, the follow-up, and last but not least the insult. One may just use one or couple of the above to generate a tweet.

Why did you do this?

Boredom, but quite frankly to expose the insane brain rot spewed from the mouthpiece of the Infrared collective. The entirety of that group's adherence to meaningless diatribes and word-salads by an ignorant braggart is something that should be mocked as well as condemned by any and all socialists who have actually read and studied theory. These random tables are to show that their entire ideological backbone (or lack thereof) can be easily summed up in a cadre of random word tables to produce silly sentences that mean absolutely nothing.

Afterword by the writer

There are many results that are funny, but some can and (by purpose) should be very misogynistic. This is to point out the very high level of misogynistic inceldom that the Infrared community has cultivated. I do not condone such phrases to be praised but to be mocked and directed at the stupid ignorance of the Infrared collective. All generated phrases are to be laughed at not celebrated, because to do so is to unwillingly fall down the pit of anti-intellectualism that defined this group. That being said, please enjoy this unholy creation.

“Communist femininity is a function of Ancient Roman socialism in order to free our movement. This is due to the Maoist atomic family that allowed the communists to beat fascism. Women will bitch about this because they cannot comprehend theory. Women are dumbfucks who are crypto fascists and I am lenin reincarnated who is not an incel.”
